

IF BACK HURTS TAKE SALTSTO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Says Backache Is Sure Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

Uric Acid in Meat Clogs Kidneys and Irritates the Bladder.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache, dizziness, in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine, and the uric acid is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

BRINGING UP FATHER

A 'TANKS' VICTORY

Land Warships Lead British Advance on Bapaume.

Weed Out Machine Gun Nests and Clear Trenches.

London, Oct. 2.—General Haig's men continued their last night's smashing advance begun yesterday toward Bapaume. It was officially announced today. After beating off German counter attacks against the newly won positions east of Eaucourt L'Abbaye, the British established their front in that region and cleared surrounding buildings of the enemy.

The British losses in yesterday's victory at Eaucourt L'Abbaye, when the Germans were driven back on a 3,000 yard front, were unusually small, it was learned today. The new "tanks" played an important role in the advance and helped make it possible for Haig's soldiers to win German trenches with slight losses. The "tanks" lumbered forward and weeded out German machine gun nests. The British infantry, advancing behind the new armored monsters, found enemy trenches cleaned by fire from the "tanks," and suffered slight casualties.

At several places the British have reached the Guedecourt-Le Cars highway running through Eaucourt L'Abbaye and crossing the two highways to Bapaume.

Paris, Oct. 2.—The war office announced today that the French cap-

NEWSPAPER LAYS BET

Cuban Publication Offers to Wager $10,000 the Allies Will Win.

New York, Oct. 2.—Here's a chance for some war fan to back his judgment.

Sebastian Marti, styling himself general manager for America of La Lucha, a newspaper published in Havana, Cuba, today issued the following announcement:

"La Lucha, of Havana, announces that it is willing to bet $10,000 that the allies will win the war. La Lucha will accept a wager from any part of the world, its offer remaining open until October 7.

U. S. SENATOR DEAD

James P. Clarke, of Arkansas, Dies at Home—Funeral Tuesday.

Little Rock, Oct. 2.—The funeral of United States Senator James P. Clarke, who died at his home here Sunday afternoon of apoplexy, will be held from the residence Tuesday afternoon. Senator Joe T. Robinson, of Arkansas, will represent the senate of the United States at the obsequies, and members of the Arkansas delegation in the house will represent the house of representatives.

OVER WOMAN SALE

Seven Men in Pistol Battle in Chicago Roadhouse.

One Killed, One Dying; Demanded $200 for Her.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Seven men fought a revolver battle over the "sale" of a woman for $200 early today with the result that one of the men was shot to death, and another was so seriously wounded that physicians say he will die. Fifty or sixty shots were exchanged in the battle which was fought in a roadhouse owned by Samuel Harris.

The slain man was identified as "Peggy" O'Day, a saloonkeeper. Daniel Hartman, his companion, was shot through the lung.

O'Day, Hartman and two associates sped to the roadhouse in an automobile. Hartman, according to the story, told the police, had offered to "sell" a woman to him, and in anticipation of trouble, armed himself and two waiters. When members of the automobile party burst into the roadhouse the shooting began.

Early stories of the affair called it a holdup.

ANOTHER IRISH REVOLT

Fordham Professor Believes Conspiration Will Rekindle Revolution.

New York, Oct. 2.—"If England placed conscription upon the Irish people there will be another revolution in Ireland."

Dr. Joseph Byrnes, a professor in Fordham university, who has just completed an extended trip in Ireland, made this statement on arrival aboard the American liner Philadelphia.

"There is a great deal of disaffection in Ireland," he said, "and it is growing daily. In England there is talk of putting conscription on Ireland. If this is done, there will be another revolution."

"On every side one hears the opinion that the former revolution was premature. At that time the majority of the Irish people were against it. Since then, however, the majority have changed their minds and now the Sinn Feiners are looked up to as men with a cause."

The whole situation in Ireland has changed, became radical, and what publicity has done for them. The Catholic church changed, too, during the revolution, and went with the Sinn Feiners, and is now on their side.

"It has become a question of class distinction and caste. As the matter now lies, the Irish people believe that Ireland was taken away from them, and they are ready to fight for their rights."

WHAT IS GASOLINE?

Trade Commission Wants to Know so Prices Can Be Regulated.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The price of gasoline may be regulated by the federal government as the result of an investigation now being conducted by the department of commerce.

The department is trying to determine just what is gasoline and what it is not. Charges have been made that impure gasoline is being marketed in this section.

St. W. Straton, director of the bureau of standards, is gathering data for the purpose of ascertaining the scientific ingredients of the product.

The information which he obtains will be placed at the disposition of the federal trade commission for use in making its report to congress. It is hoped to arrive at a basis for fixing a standard of gasoline and recommending a law to congress for the protection of consumers against impure products and extortionate prices.

WILL REMAIN IN MEXICO

Panston Says U. S. Expedition Is Not to Withdraw at Present.

McAllen, Tex., Oct. 2.—Major General Pershing, commanding the department of the south, on a visit here, intimated in an interview that General Pershing's column was not now to be recalled from Mexican soil.

The Villista revolt in the state of Chihuahua and the threatening spread of that movement against the Carranza government is the reason for the American forces being held south of the border.

The intimation came in response to a question as to whether or not the recommendation that General Pershing's force be withdrawn from Mexico.

"The recommendation which I made regarding the withdrawal of General Pershing's forces," he replied, "was contained in a code message to the war department. A part of my recommendation was published. An investigation was made to ascertain who had 'leaked' in giving out the information. It was learned that the 'leak' had occurred in Washington, the information having been made public through the inadvertence of some official there."

"But that recommendation was

RUSS UNITED THRU WAR

Professor Harper Predicts Most Bloody Year in Great Conflict.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Samuel N. Harper, instructor in Russian history and literature in the University of Chicago, looks for the most sanguinary fighting of the war within the next year.

Professor Harper, who has returned home from a five months' stay in Russia, believes there will be no peace for at least another year and before the nations are fully prepared he predicts there will be a more frightful havoc than the world has ever seen before.

He was enthusiastic over the progress that Russia has made since his last visit. It is a united nation now, he says, the many different factions and peoples of the empire finding a common bond in the war.
